PRAYER

O God our Father, who called us to follow Christ, the Good Samaritan, illumine our hearts, so that we will be able to comprehend that to serve is reigning and journeying in the footsteps of your Son, offering our lives to those who are suffering, and sharing your glory in paradise. Amen!

“Bioethics inspires us, instigates us and makes us reflect on the reality of the world of life, on our lifestyle in order to give a concrete testimony of our responsibility, to build a new society more just and healthier, as well as a future of hope for humanity. Beyond the superficiality of things and ideologies, it is urgent to cultivate profound bioethics, not enclosed in itself, but inclusive and global”.
